Subject Access request & Right to Erasure guidance for event volunteers

Existing donors on the register have the right to access their personal information held by Anthony Nolan. They also have the right to close their record or delete their information held by Anthony Nolan.

If you get a request at an event, take it seriously and follow the guidance below.

Direct them to

www.Anthonynolan.org/rightsrequestform

This asks for information so we can action their request.

If this does not work or is not possible or preferred request them to email register.support@anthonynolan.org or call

0207 424 6567

If you have any questions, please speak to your event lead or Anthony Nolan representative.
